Questions and Answers
ABOUT BRINGING FOOD TO THE TASTE OF RECONCILIATION

Q What kind of food should I bring?

A Whatever you like! We want to represent as many cultures as possible, so bring whatever represents YOU. If your culture doesn't have any good food, bring food from a culture whose food you love!

Q What if I don't cook?

A Store-bought foods and restaurant or fast-food dishes are welcome as well!

Q How much food should I bring?

A As much as you can. Usually up to 500 people attend the Taste of Reconciliation, but you do not have to feel responsible for feeding all of them! Whatever you bring, try to divide it up into small "tastes" to give as many people as possible an opportunity to experience your dish.

Q Do I need to provide silverware?

A No, we'll provide silverware, plates, cups, and napkins. Just bring your dish and whatever serving utensils you need.

Q When should I arrive, where do I go, and what do I do?

A The food booths open at 5:00pm, so be at church no later than 4:45pm. Bring your food into Room 145, and someone will find a table for you to set up on. Once you're set up, you just stand by your table, greet people warmly, and serve up your samples! If you bring a friend to help you, your friend can take a turn serving your dish while you visit the other booths. Once your food is gone, feel free to pack up and find a seat in the worship center for the multi-cultural worship service.
